FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

American Greatness Fund Announces Launch of the Election Integrity Alliance

American Greatness Fund announced today the launch of the Election Integrity Alliance. The Election Integrity Alliance will build and unite bipartisan allies across the country focused on ending election fraud and strengthening election safeguards by providing information, resources, endorsements of allies' efforts, and solutions to secure free and fair elections. The Election Integrity Project will be a centralized hub of allies that provides communication to voters and tools to legislators, litigators, and administrators to enforce legal protections for American elections.

The Election Integrity Alliance's National Board is comprised of individuals who have fought for Election Integrity at great personal risk and who are champions for free and fair elections.

The following individuals are National Board Members:

Jenna Ellis, attorney and former counsel to President Trump, will serve as Chairwoman of the Board.

Ken Paxton, Texas Attorney General, will serve as Honorary Co-Chairman.

Peter Navarro, former Trump Administration adviser, will serve as Honorary Co-Chairman.

Bernie Kerik, retired New York police commissioner, will serve as Board Member.

Michael Donnelly, attorney and constitutional law professor, will serve as Board Member.

Mirna Tarraf, former Trump Legal Team special assistant, will serve as Board Member.
