Yes, looks good thanks.

I don't want to highlight the 2 ballots or anything, but if you're asked - here's a talking point for the last two ballots:

The final two ballots required administrative approval as we completed our final review of eligible ballots. All ballots in our possession get triple checked, documented, verified and archived.

Thank you,

Can I go with the below?

Provisional Ballots to be processed: 2,081
Problem ballots to turnover: 2

Total ballots in the Recorder's Possession: 2,083

Nov. 18 is the deadline to complete processing Provisional Ballots.

I just learned that we have 2 more problem ballots that were eligible that we'll be turning over in the morning so that'll be on tomorrow's report. Ha.

Constance,

We gave our final turnovers of problem ballots that were signature verified by the deadline:

11/17	Problem Ballots Turned Over	371 Ballots	(2 turnovers 369 + 2)
-------	-----------------------------	-------------	-----------------------

We have done two Provisional/Conditional Provisional Ballot Turnovers:

11/16	Provisional Batch 001	381 Ballots	279 Eligible Ballots
11/17	Conditional Provisional Batch 001	68 Ballots	18 Eligible Ballots

Estimated Number of Early Ballots Left to Process: 0
Estimated Number of Provisional Ballots Left to Process: 2081

Ballots remaining in Recorder's Possession: 2081

We are currently preparing another batch of Provisional Ballots to turnover in the morning. I'm counting the number of ballots we have whether they're verified or not, but making note of how many are eligible.

Hi Gabriella,

I need your help with the number of ballots to report tonight. I do not want to inflate the numbers over.

Early = 0

Provisionals subtracting the 68 turned over today = 2151 or 2081

Are you subtracting the total number given to us or just the verified number? What is a good number for posting today?

Oh, that's interesting. Definitely understand. The County Doesn't have a Constant Contact or MailChimp type service?

I'm planning to update the release on our home page. I'll send you the link when updated.

We didn't send it to media yesterday, just told them to look for it when we post – too many of them are not on our GovDelivery list and Outlook won't let me send to a bunch of CC'd address.

We have turned over a batch of Provisional Ballots to Elections today. There were 279 eligible ballots in that batch.

We must wait until 5pm to give voters a chance to "cure" their ballot for a final number of regular/problem ballots. We will be turning that over in the morning. We currently have 331 ready for turnover (that number may change slightly).

Provisional Batch Turned Over to Elections: 279 eligible ballots
Provisional Ballots being processed: 2219
Regular/Problem Ballots verified and awaiting turnover: 331
Total ballots in the Recorder's Possession: 2550

We are trying to finish up the duplicates before we post. They have only processed about 1,200 ballots today. I need that number to increase.
