Hi Vijaya,
I hope you are doing well (considering/despite all of the things).

Thanks for letting me know! Sorry to miss you.
We had a productive but winding conversation, mostly riffing with Kim and Geoff about the different ways that they connect with local election officials and what the gaps there might be. Our plan is to return to the monitoring conversation (and free speech implications) in our next meeting in mid/late September.

If you have ideas for things that need to be on our next agenda, please let me know!

Best,
Kate

Hi Kate,
Just wanted to let you know that I can't make the meeting tomorrow - apologies. When the meeting moved from last week, I wasn't able to clear up my schedule for tomorrow.

Look forward to catching up soon.

Thanks,
Vijaya

Thank you for your message.

I am currently receiving a large volume of email messages and requests each day. Though I would like to respond to every message, I apologize that I may not be able to get back to you in a timely manner.

If this is an urgent request about the Center for an Informed Public, please contact our Director of Strategy and Operations, Julia Scanlan (jccarter@uw.edu). If this is a media request, please contact Michael Grass (megrass@uw.edu), the Communications Manager at the Center for an Informed Public, who may be able to coordinate a time for us to chat or find another researcher at the Center who can speak with you.

Warm regards,
Kate

Thanks! I was a little stilted... and missed my Richer quote initially... but oh well. A little disappointed here that other committee members don't even have the courage to comment (much less serve on our consequently tiny subcommittee).
